AuSable Council Reviews Land Use

by Willard Bosserman, Co. Ext. Director

The AuSable River Watershed Study Council viewed a slide program telling why House Bill 4189 should be passed. Primarily the bill designates essential lands and sets up a land use commission. What will constitute essential lands is the concern expressed by council members. Although the bill indicates the state will exercise some control over essential lands, it doesn't spell out very good what the criteria will be for designating it. The fear is, someone may want to designate most of the land essential.

The question came up, essential to whom? This was answered in the presentation by saying the lands are essential to the people of Michigan. One instance they referred to was the gravel deposit that is covered by the city of Oxford in Oakland County. Agriculture land for producing food is a concern for all of us.

The AuSable River Watershed Study Council took no stand on the issue because they didn't have a copy of the latest Monsma bill to study. H.B. 4189 is sponsored by Representative Steve Monsma. The United Auto Workers slide program was well done but didn't answer all of the questions raised by the council members.

There is always the inherent fear in people of something new and fear of controls by a higher power.

This same concern was expressed during the discussion on whether it was best to have wild and scenic river control by the federal government or by the state. Most council members were happy to continue with local green belt zoning on the AuSable River.

Other business of the council concerned the latest effort to remove the dam at Grayling. The members want to be kept informed of future progress in this program.

Vikes Host Cheboygan, ... Launch '77-78 Season

by Joe Schrader

The Grayling High School Varsity and JV cage squads will open the curtain on the '77-78 basketball season on Tuesday, November 29 when they host the Cheboygan Chiefs in MHS conference clashes. Tip-off time for the JV contest is 6:30 p.m. with the varsity encounter following. The Vikes knocked off the Chiefs twice last year, their only two conference victories and are aiming for a duplication of last year's effort against Cheboygan. Grayling dropped its other 12 conference tilts and were 3-15 overall. Cheboygan was winless in the conference last year. Charlevoix, with a 12-1 mark, copped the conference crown. A new face appears on this year's basketball schedule for the Vikes - Standish - who they take on twice late in the season.

Head Coach Fred Wolcott is counting on speed and aggressiveness to overcome this year's lack of team height and hopes to improve on last year's season mark. The Vikings take on four conference foes in a row to open the season before meeting Roscommon in an away contest December 13. Following the Chief encounter, they will face Gaylord, Charlevoix and St. Ignace in succession.

Cochran Tom Mill's JV team will also play a 16-game schedule this year, all games preceding the Vike varsity contest. The JV's won four games while dropping 14 last season.

The Freshman squad will also swing into action soon, opening up on Monday, November 28 when they travel to Cheboygan to take on the Chiefs with game-time set for 7:00 p.m. This year's team, made up of players moving up from last year's Middle School 8th grade squad, is shooting to improve on last year's Frosh record of 3 wins and 12 losses. Warren "Butch" Hayes coaches the team and will lead them against 14 opponents during the course of the season.

Cochran Wolcott has picked a 12-member squad to go into action for the Varsity squad, including five returning lettermen. Returnees include seniors Tom Kaiser and Randy McClain along with Juniors Geoff Stancil, Jeff Parkinson and Tim Bitner. Others selected to represent the Varsity Vikes this season include Dean Smith, a Senior, along with Tim Krey, Spencer Olsen, Dan Niederer, Kevin Wertheimer and Mark McEvers, all Juniors plus Rocky Tobin, the only Sophomore on the squad.

Notice To Rural Postal Customers

The cooperation of rural and suburban postal customers in helping to keep private roads passable and approaches to mail boxes clear during the coming winter months was requested today by Postmaster Jim Baker.

"Postal customers are responsible for keeping approaches to their mail boxes clear of snow and other obstructions that would make mail delivery difficult or impossible," Postmaster Baker said. "People should be aware that failure to clear paths to mail boxes promptly after heavy snows may temporarily prevent the carriers from making deliveries. Customers will be contacted if they have an obstructed mail box."

There may also be a need to ask postal customers to relocate their boxes on a new line of travel if excessive and extended detours are necessary, the postmaster said.

"Highway officials are responsible for keeping public roads passable and in good repair," Postmaster Baker said. "But in areas where mail service is provided over roads not maintained by the state, it is the responsibility of the postal customer to keep the roads clear."

Saga Depicts Student Life

Student life is a primary theme for the 1978 Grayling High School yearbook. Basically a photo essay, the SAGA catches students and teachers in their daily routine of academic studies, sports action and social activities.

Candid photography for the yearbook is handled by students Jo Ann Kesteloot, Jim Kraus and Phil Trudgeon, with a professional touch from Grayling's own Carol Wert. Much of the photo finishing work is also being handled by students as part of this learning experience in journalism.

The SAGA staff recognizes the importance of the support of the following advertisers: McDonald's Restaurant, Grayling Mercantile Co., Old Dam Party Store, Terry's Union 76, Arrowhead Inn, Frederic Realty, LeRoy Millikin, Inc., Fred's Auto-body of Frederic, Hilltop 76 of Waters and The Frederic Inn.

Students in the Contemporary Family Life Class at Grayling High School took part in an instructional wedding as part of a class project. The class deals with marriage, a family, budgeting money and so on. Many students do not realize how serious a step marriage can be. The class is set up to explain and prepare students for the future.

The instructional wedding took place at the Michelson Memorial Methodist Church. The bride, Lisa Ingalls, was dressed in a full length white gown. The groom, Craig Stewart, dressed in a pale blue tuxedo for his role. Rhonda Van De Ven was the maid of honor and Patti Rankin was the bridesmaid. Both wore floor length pale blue dresses to match the attire the best man, Randy Erickson and the groomsmen, Scott Hallett who wore tuxedos. Rev. George Spencer performed the ceremony. The bride was given away by Kent Reynolds, principal of the high school. The bride's mother and both the groom's parents were present for the ceremony.

Nancy Hoffman, Organist, played the traditional Wedding March just before the start of the ceremony.

A reception was held immediately afterwards in the basement of the church where punch and cake were served.

Thanksgiving Travel Could Be Most Dangerous Holiday

Although Michigan motorists will travel only half as many miles this Thanksgiving weekend as over a summer holiday period, this could be the most dangerous holiday on state roads this year, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

Twenty-nine persons died in Michigan traffic during the Thanksgiving weekend last year, compared with an average 28 deaths for each of 1977's three summer holiday weekends.

Motorists will drive an estimated 370 million miles in Michigan over the 102-hour Thanksgiving weekend as compared with an average 715 million miles for the 78-hour Memorial Day. Fourth of July and Labor Day holidays. The Thanksgiving weekend will run from 6 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 23 to midnight Sunday, Nov. 27.

Auto Club points out that Thanksgiving is an especially hazardous period on Michigan roads because motorists stay close to home and make short trips for dining out or to visit family and friends where heavy consumption of alcohol takes place.

Statistics show that three of every four fatal accidents last Thanksgiving occurred within 25 miles of home, and alcohol was a known or suspected factor in 19 of the 25 fatal accidents.

Auto Club points out that holiday travelers — and their hosts — can make this Thanksgiving holiday the safest ever if they will:

—Remember the "one - for - one" rule. More than one ounce of alcohol consumed within an hour's time doubles a driver's chances of having a fatal traffic accident.

—Stay extra alert near home. Most accidents happen in familiar surroundings.

—Plan trips to begin and end in daylight. Add extra travel time to compensate for poor weather. Two-thirds of the fatal accidents last Thanksgiving weekend occurred after dark.

—Travel no more than 200 miles round trip in one day. Allow a minimum of four hours' driving time to travel 200 miles by freeway and five to six hours if traveling on other roads.

Motorists driving through the downtown Detroit area or in the Pontiac area on Thanksgiving Day should plan trips to avoid parade and football traffic.

The J.L. Hudson Company's annual Detroit Thanksgiving Day parade will start at 9:20 a.m. at Woodward and Putnam. Some 500,000 spectators are expected to watch the 45-minute procession.

A sellout crowd of 80,000 is anticipated for the 12:30 p.m. Thanksgiving Day football game between the Detroit Lions and the Chicago Bears at Pontiac's Silverdome Stadium. Motorists not attending the game should avoid stadium - area surface roads and the I-75 freeway near Pontiac one hour before and after the contest, which should end about 3:30 p.m.

Those planning trips by air should note that many carriers report flights filled at peak travel times on Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 23 and 24, and on Friday and Sunday, Nov. 25 and 27. Most popular destinations include New York, Los Angeles, Las Vegas and several Florida cities. Hotel and motel facilities also will be difficult to find at those locations.

Twenty-two of Michigan's ski areas will be in operation Thanksgiving Day, weather permitting.

Lower Peninsula lodges planning to open Nov. 24 are Boyne Mt. near Boyne Falls; Boyne Highlands, near Harbor Springs; Thunder Mt. near Boyne Falls; Sugar Loaf, near Traverse City; Caberfae, near Cadillac; Schuss Mt. near Mancelona; Crystal Mt. near Thompsonville; Lost Pines, near Harnettville; Mt. Maria, near Spruce; Cannonsburg, near Cannonsburg; Timber Ridge, near Gobles; Winterskol, near Lakeview; Royal Valley, near Buchanan; Pine Knob, near Clarkston; Alpine Valley, near Milford; Mt. Brighton, near Brighton; and Mt. Gramplan, near Oxford.

Upper Peninsula lodges planning to open Thanksgiving are Pine Mt., near Iron Mountain; Indianhead Mt., near Wakefield; Brule Mt., near Iron River; Big Powderhorn, near Bessemer, and Vulcan, U.S.A., near Vulcan.

Bids Wanted

The Crawford County Board of Commissioners will be accepting bids on a late model used 4 wheel drive pickup with plow. All bids are to be returned to the County Clerk's office by the 26th of November.

Capitol Capsules

by State Rep. Ralph Ostling

Happy Thanksgiving: As families gather to observe this festive holiday, it's important to remember to take the necessary precautions which can avoid turning joy into tragedy. Drive defensively at all times, and keep children away from fires.

Budget Bill: The legislature has finally approved HB 4158, the last 1977-78 budget bill, which funds state construction projects. The fiscal year began October 1; this had to be enacted this month to avoid losing federal funds.

License Tabs: Since 1978 passenger car license tabs are now on sale, you should soon either send in the prepared application you got in the mail, or stop by a Secretary of State's office. Tabs should be put on plates promptly to avoid loss.

Fixup Fixup: Now in the Senate is HB 5417, which amends the 1976 Home Improvement Act to ensure that homeowners who want to fix up their home under the Act's tax exemption provisions would not have to fill out any forms for local assessors; the prohibition on improvement - related assessment increases would remain in effect as long as the person owned the property.

Bus Riders: The House has also approved HB 4865, which limits the capacity of school buses to 110 percent of "officially rated" capacity. If this is enacted, it will be illegal for schools to overload their buses, thus causing unsafe conditions for the children riding.

Bar Rules: The Michigan Liquor Control Commission has set new rules which provide that a bar may lose its liquor license if it has nude or live sex shows, or if it displays films or slides depicting scenes of people performing explicit sexual acts. For a detailed copy of these rules, write Walter Keck, Liquor Control Commission - Box 30005, Lansing 48909.

Shipwreck Antiques: The Senate is now considering HB 4759, which would restrict the removal of historical items from Great Lakes bottomlands. The bill is designed to ensure that Michigan artifacts do not end up in New York antique markets via swim-by-night skindivers.

New Year's: The House will soon vote on HB 5697, which would extend the hours of liquor establishments on New Year's Eve until 4 A.M. The bill would also allow restaurants serving Sunday brunch to sell liquor after 10 a.m.; the present starting time is Noon.

Christmas is a coming

You can make holiday preparations easier on your pocketbook, thus you will conserve both energy and resources in following these timely tips:

Do holiday shopping well in advance. This not only gives you more time before Christmas, but also allows you to make more efficient use of your finances. Bake three or four loaves of holiday breads at one time and freeze them to serve later or to give as Christmas gifts.

Make a list of all the supplies you will need so you can get them in one trip to the store. You will save time and gasoline (or more, and might also save money by buying in quantity).

Recycle coffee cans and foil pans by using them as cookie containers. The coffee cans can also be used for baking bread.

You can save energy at any time by cooking oven meals, that is, cooking the main dish, vegetables, bread and/or dessert at the same time at one temperature. Oven preheating really is necessary for delicate baked products such as cakes, breads, cookies, or souffles, but meat, vegetables and casseroles may be started in a cold oven.

Make it a practice to bake your Christmas cookies at a time when the oven is already preheated. Don't be an "oven-pecker." Opening the oven door wastes heat and energy and can also reduce the quality of the baked foods. One "peek" results in the oven temperature dropping 25 to 75 degrees. If you don't have a window in your oven door, rely on a range or kitchen timer to help estimate when baking is near completion.

Ovens are designed for baking and roasting, not space heating. On chilly mornings, it might be tempting to turn on the oven and leave the door open, but don't do it. It's an expensive waste of energy.

After thinking about baking cookies and breads, it's time to think about putting yourself on a diet, but now is a good time to put your heating system on a "diet." Every degree you permanently dial down on your thermostat saves about three percent of your annual energy usage; dial down 5° and you save approximately 15 percent. Reduce the thermostat setting another 5° for 10 to 15 percent, whichever is lower, each night and you can save more than one percent for every degree dialed down over an eight-hour period. If your house will be unoccupied for five hours or longer, turn down the thermostat to 55° and use lamp timers or photoelectric controls to turn security lighting on and off automatically.

By Arlyne Rhode

Grayling's "Grizzlies" won their first regional Junior Olympic Archery Development Title.

The Grizzlies took on the bid city teams and showed them how tough our bears could be. Fifteen teams from Michigan, Ohio, and Indiana came to Muncie, Indiana to participate in the Regional J.O.A.D. Tournament. This is the heart of the J.O.A.D. program, where world and olympic champion, Darrell Pace, and olympic champion, Rick McKinney, started their archery.

After sixty arrows had been shot by each archery participant in this tournament which is for people under 18 years of age, our four fellows who make up our first team came out triumphant. Tim Bitner, Jack Stevens, Steve Kapets and Herb Stephan, competed with the other Grayling archers to be on the first team.

The Grizzlies total was 2176 out of a possible 2400 to beat the Portage Archers from Sylvania, Ohio. Big Tim Bitner led his team for the second meet of the season with a 561 out of a possible 600. Jack Stevens turned in a 541. Steve Kapets shot a 539, which was 40 points over his previous tournament total, and Herb Stephan finished out our strong team with a 538. No one on our team placed in the individual standings so you can say this was a real team effort. The team members each received medals for permanent awards and a beautiful traveling trophy will adorn the clubhouse.

Trent Bigler, Ralph Dandy, Brian Dandy and Cindy Ruhl made up the second team, the "Kodiaks." They totalled 1908 points for 5th place in the standings. Leading the team was Trent Bigler with 528. He is a new member since the start of our season. Ralph Dandy fired a 515 and brother Brian came in with a 455. My daughter, Cindy Ruhl, completed the boy's team with a 407, a good score for having shot only four weeks.

Our next meet will be in eight weeks in Detroit. This will be the state tournament for the J.O.A.D. archers.

Editor's Mailbox

November 15, 1977

Dear Whitey:

Thank you for letting me take this method of bringing a message to the City of Grayling residents regarding some recurring questions about City operations.

The first subject I would like to discuss is the question of why Peninsular Street between Lake and McClellan Streets has not been paved. This problem is part of a larger problem involving parking in the vicinity of St. Mary's Church, especially on Saturday evenings, Sundays and holy days. As you all know, parking is very limited in the vicinity of the church and on street parking in the area creates a bottle neck for traffic and makes access for emergency vehicles very difficult at the least. I would ask those people attending St. Mary's to please observe the following in an effort to correct this problem:

1. Please park as close to the curb as possible when parking on Peninsular or Lake Street.
2. Please do not park within fifteen feet of the intersection at Lake and Peninsular Streets or within fifteen feet of any fire hydrant or emergency entrance to the church building.
3. Please use the parking lots at the rear of the church and around the church hall as much as possible especially during winter when snow plowing makes congestion even worse in the area.

In answer to the question about the paving of Peninsular Street, we did discuss this project with church personnel at the time and decided not to pave that block of Peninsular Street and to install curbs and gutters until such time as either adequate parking could be developed for church use or possible acquisition of the property across from the church with subsequent abandonment of that block of Peninsular for use as a church parking area.

I would be glad to discuss this matter with anyone who may be interested but hope this offers an explanation for now.

The second subject of concern also involves parking problems and impairing winter weather. I would urge all city residents to be sure to observe the City Ordinance which prohibits parking on all City Streets between 3:00 a.m. and 6:00 a.m. This Ordinance is not strictly enforced during summer months even though some problems of street cleaning are encountered. However, strict enforcement is a necessity in the winter time in order to allow reasonable clearing of snow by City crews.

We would also appreciate it if all City residents would park off the street as much as possible during the day in order to allow snow plowing operations to run smoother and faster without requiring additional overtime.

Thank all of you for your excellent cooperation with City programs in the past and we look forward to continued cooperation and more efficient maintenance operations in the future.

Please call the City Office if you have any problems with any of the above items.

Regards,
Jerry W. Morford
City Manager

If you're afraid of cancer, you're not alone. But some people are so afraid that they won't go to the doctor when they suspect something's wrong. They're afraid the doctor might "find something." This kind of fear can prevent them from discovering cancer in the early stages when it is most often curable. These people run the risk of letting cancer scare them to death.

Young People's Concert Series

The second annual Young People's Concert Series is gathering momentum for what promises to be a most inspiring season. The series was initiated last year through the combined efforts of area residents, Karen Smith and Sharon Rutkowski, and the cooperation of the Interlochen Arts Academy. This year joined by Evelyn Petersen and Karen Galbraith, they are the core of a newly formed organization aimed at promoting programs in fine arts for children. Once again the emphasis of the programming is on interaction between the performers and the children - a delightful blend of education and entertainment.

On Saturday, November 26, the series opens with the ballet "Peter and the Wolf" as performed by the Interlochen Arts Academy Dance Department and Orchestra. The first part of the program will see members of the audience invited onstage to creatively explore their interpretations of animal characters' movements, under the tutelage of Dance Department director Helen Eari. Then the conductor Byron Hanson and the orchestra will spotlight musical themes of the work, so that the audience can visually associate the dance characters with their musical themes and representative instrument. At the conclusion of the audience participation, the orchestra and dancers will combine talents with presenting the work in full regalia - lights, costumes, music, movement and magic! This concert will be held at 10 a.m. at Corson Auditorium, Saturday, November 26th.

The remaining programs are as follows: February 4, "The Wonderful World of Bands" with the IAA Band; March 18, "The Merry Singers" with the Interlochen Choral Ensemble; and of April, "Singing Strings for the Very Young" with students from the Minneapolis Suzuki Institute and the IAA.

RELAXING... Far from the snow and cold of less temperate climates, Lisa and Jeff Solowitz find poolside backgammon an enjoyable day to spend a warm afternoon in Palm Springs, Calif.

HOW HIGH WILL IT BOUNCE ...

THE BAD CHECK STORY

by Kent & Davis

Following the bouncing ball can be great fun at a sing-a-long. Coping with a bouncing check is an entirely different experience and it never produces much merriment (triviality).

Bad checks are a real and recurring problem in our local business community. The purpose of this missive is to advance some suggestions on how the average businessperson can minimize potential involvement with bad checks.

This article is also intended to remind all persons who issue checks (who doesn't anymore?), that writing a bad check is a violation of criminal law. Depending on the amount of the check and other circumstances surrounding the transaction - issuing a bad check is either a misdemeanor or felony offense.

The first and best rule for any business person likely to accept checks in the normal course of business is to "know the person issuing the check."

The second cardinal rule is to "never accept a third party check." An exception to this rule would be a payroll check drawn on the account of a business known to be solid and solvent.

A third tip is to "avoid checks drawn on out-of-town banks" where possible. A bad check drawn on an out of town bank is more difficult to prosecute than the home grown variety.

"Fine", you say. "How about if I just close my business down completely, then I won't have any problems other than how to fend off starvation and the wolves at the door."

As businessmen we realize that it is impossible for many of you to know each and everyone of your check cashing customers. We are also aware of the universal use and popularity of checks as a means of financial exchange. We know that checks constitute a major portion of cash flow for most businesses, especially in a resort area like ours.

If, in a given instance you are presented with the need to accept a check and you are not in a position to comply with rules one and three we suggest you do the following:

1. Never violate rule number two.
2. Limit the amount of the check to the value of the purchase or a very few dollars over the amount of the purchase. (This will have the effect of trimming your losses in the event the check does not clear).

3. VERY IMPORTANT: Obtain the following information from the person cashing the check and write it on the back of the check: Name, address, Driver's License number, and date of birth (having a stamp made up with this information on it is a fine time saver). This information is essential to police investigation of bad checks.

If, despite all precautions, you are presented with a bad check do the following:

1. Obtain a 10 day bad check notice from the Sheriff's Department or the City Police.

2. Fill out the notice and send it via certified mail, return receipt requested to the address you have for the person who cashed the check.

3. If you have not received a satisfactory response within 10 days of mailing the notice bring the check, a copy of the notice and proof of mailing to the Prosecutor's Office. In all probability an arrest warrant will be issued at that time.

Tenure?

Citizen-law makers, or professional office-holders? Which is correct?

Richard Millman

Should the President, and members of the Congress, be limited in the amount of time they can legally spend in public office?

That's one of the ideas broadcast these days by John F. Connally, former Governor of Texas and Washington bigshot, who is on a vigorous speaking schedule around the country.

Connally obviously has something more in mind than his pet proposal to limit the terms of the President, senators, and congressmen. He may even have the White House in mind for himself, but that's another story.

I first ran across Connally's limited term proposal on his home turf in Texas at the recent annual convention of the National Newspaper Association. In Houston, Connally gave his version of "the speech" — a basic spellbinder, honed only slightly differently for any particular audience. I had heard the same speech, trimmed down only barely, before a Republican chicken barbecue a week or so earlier in Eaton County, Michigan. Obviously, "the speech", in Connally's case, can serve a multitude of audiences.

His ideas on limiting terms of the Washington establishment were not espoused in Eaton County; the main pitch there was to elect Republican congressmen, which is a natural pitch considering the nature of the occasion.

In Houston, however, the audience was at least nominally non-partisan. Limiting terms of Washington knows no partisan bounds, and fit in well with Connally's spiel to the publishers.

Connally proposed limiting the President to one six-year term; senators to one eight-year term; and members of the House of Representatives to two 4-year terms.

"That way," Connally explained, "they would conduct the nation's business and then go home. There would be no need, no desire to build huge power bases in Washington. They would do their work, and then go home to live under the laws they make."

One of Connally's basic tenets in "the speech" is that the real power in Washington rests with the Congress, which makes the laws, and further that the real power in the Congress rests with the nameless, faceless professional staff members who serve the Congress but who aren't elected to anything. Connally quotes some frightening statistics about how the size of the Congressional establishment has grown in the past few years, both in the number of employees and the size of the payroll.

"They're all human," he says of Congressmen, "and the human desire is to build".

By including a grandfather clause in his proposal — that is no present member of Congress would be limited, but all future members would be — Connally hopes to achieve some Congressional support. State legislatures would not favor the limitation, he adds, because "they're all dreaming of running for Congress."

To the same newspaper audience a day later, but by telephone hookup instead of in person, President Carter entered his dissent to the Connally proposal. The people already control the Presidency, Mr. Carter said.

"You see that the American people have, either through tragedy or votes or voluntary withdrawal" by presidents running for reelection, a very tight control over the presidency itself," Mr. Carter told the publishers.

"I think that the present arrangements is the best one, with accountability every four years, and in times of strife or turmoil or lack of confidence, the President either voluntarily deciding not to run for reelection or the voters deciding to change. So my summary is: Leave it like it is."

The 22nd Amendment to the Constitution, of course, already limits the President to two full 4-year terms.

It seems to me that the thrust of the Connally proposal has considerable merit, although the present constitutional limitation on presidents may have the White House situation well enough in hand. In Congress, however, perhaps some improvements could be made.

The original intent of representative government was to have citizen-lawmakers; that has changed with the passing of time, so that now — both in Washington and increasingly in state capitols — the lawmaker has become a professional office-holder, frequently trained-up for that goal. In the process, citizen control has been diluted.

Maybe it's time to look at some sort of legal limitation on public service, both at the national and state levels.

Where do you start when you think all of the many people who performed or helped on our show? It was a success, it was fun, and from reports the audiences enjoyed the show. To name names would be unwise because I would be sure to miss someone. Look at the program and you will find all the wonderful people who performed in our specialty acts, husbands helped on sets, and lovely girls handed out programs. I feel I must mention names when it comes to lighting; Bob Smith and Arnie Krause handled the chore magnificently at Houghton Lake and at Roscommon. Mike Cross and Mark Swan showed us such professionalism at their ability to do so much and amazed us when they seemed to know what we wanted before we opened our mouths. They were polite and patient. Mrs. Summerix must be proud of you.

With the Christmas season around the corner and some singouts scheduled, we are back busy rehearsing. Anyone who would like to visit and maybe see if they might like to join up with us, now is the time. December 3rd will be our first coaching session with John and Fred Kienitz.

London Trip - Take #2

The official opening of the Convention took place Monday when 5000 Sweet Adelines congregated at Royal Albert Square for a mass sing. From this came the special edition of the "Evening Standard" with the banner "5000 Sweet Adelines pack Albert Hall - London gets harmonized", and "5000 warm and wonderful human beings descended on London this week in the greatest single invasion of Americans since World War Two." I like it!!!

From the mass singing we entered Royal Albert Hall for the first time and were awed by the beauty. D. Geiger was our Chapter Delegate but we attended. During the meeting we met members from the "Sifting Sands" Chapter in Saudi Arabia, Purbook and Northwood Chapters from England sang for us and Brighton Chapter of England received their charter and sang. Then the first chapter from Sweden, "Telega Chapter" was awarded their charter and performed "Broadway Medley" with choreography. They were absolutely delightful as they brought down the house. The Swedish flag was put up with the others and there wasn't a dry eye in the place as members throughout the world sang. "It's A Small World." As of September, 1977 we were 27 075 strong from 676 chapters, now we add 2 more chapters.

"I've had a breast removed."

"That's what the woman from Reagan to Reagan said to me after my own mastectomy. I asked her which one I could tell by looking. Mostly I didn't believe I'd ever look that good, or feel so good again."

"But I do. You can see for yourself."

Reach to Recovery is a special volunteer corps of women who have all had surgery for breast cancer. The woman who came to visit me showed me how to do special exercises. She gave me a booklet that had answers to more questions than I'd then be able to ask.

And more than that, she helped me realize I was still me. She helped give me the confidence to get on the road again — the road to recovery."

Fuel Stop

Home for many families is where teenagers come to re-fuel.

Michigan's Winter Wonderland is paradise for skiers, but the accompanying cold weather will make the going all downhill for motorists with car-starting problems. Engines that are "ice cold" usually are difficult to start. Automobile Club of Michigan estimates eight percent of winter road service calls come from motorists who fail to use the proper car-starting technique. For added ease in winter starting, Auto Club suggests this simple 1-2-3 method: (1) With the transmission in park, turn off electrical accessories so there is no extra strain on the battery. (2) Push the gas pedal to the floor and let up slowly to set the automatic choke. The accelerator should not be pumped since this will flood the engine. (3) Engage the starter for 10 seconds. Should the engine fail to start, repeat steps 1 and 2. If you flood the engine, depress the gas pedal to the floor, hold and engage the starter. The accelerator should be kept down until the engine starts. Motorists should keep their fuel tank full to avoid fuel line freezing and follow their owner's manual for winter maintenance schedules.

How Come?
Rebuked by her mother for having been cross and ill-tempered, the teen-aged daughter replied: "How come when it's me, it's temper — and when it's you, it's nerves?"

Two Serving On Aircraft Carrier

Navy Aviation Electrician's Third Class Bryan G. Arntson, son of Mrs. Leone M. Duncan of Grayling and Navy Storekeeper Third Class Richard A. Wakeley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wakeley of North Down River Road, and whose wife June is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hermen, all of Grayling, have returned from an extended deployment in the Mediterranean Sea.

They are serving as crewmembers aboard the aircraft carrier U.S.S. Independence, homeported in Norfolk, Va. While deployed, their ship operated as a unit of the U.S. Sixth Fleet.

During the 7 month cruise, they and their shipmates participated in several training operations, including the major NATO exercises "Dawn Patrol '77", "National Week XXIII" and "Display Determination". Additionally, they had the opportunity to visit the Spanish cities of Barcelona, Malaga and Rota, plus the Italian cities of Naples, Brindisi, Bari, Allassio, Rome, Florence and Pisa.

The Independence is a 1,046 foot-long, "Forrestal" class aircraft carrier. She carries a crew of 2,790 officers and enlisted men, plus 2,150 personnel assigned to an attack aircraft wing. She has the capability of carrying 85 jet aircraft and can travel at speeds of up to 35 knots.

What's Cooking In Michigan

by Carl Olson
Mich. Dept. of Agriculture

You have to figure that anyone working for the Michigan Apple Committee would know what to do with apples, right? Right! A lady there sent me a marvelous recipe for what she calls "Mother's Apple Dumplings." They're great!

In a mixing bowl, combine 2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon each of salt and baking powder, and 2 tablespoons of sugar. Cut in two-thirds of a cup of shortening. Add four or five tablespoons of water and 1 teaspoon of vanilla.

Stir until the flour is moistened and the dough holds together. Roll out thinly. Then sprinkle with sugar, cinnamon and nutmeg and cut into four 4-inch squares.

Now, peel, core and dice four Michigan apples and place them on the small squares you've just made. Moisten the edges of the dough and bring the opposite corners together, pinching the edges together firmly.

Place these in a greased baking dish about two inches deep and sprinkle with some melted butter and a little cinnamon. Pour 1 cup of water into the baking dish and bake in an oven preheated to 450 for 30 minutes or until brown. Baste frequently with the liquid from the pan.

Serve warm with Michigan Grade A cream, whipping cream or your favorite sauce.

Incidentally, preliminary Michigan Department of Agriculture figures show our state's apple crop this year is about 13% higher than last year, with production reaching 540 million pounds. If there are around three to four apples per pound...well, why don't you have the kids figure it out next time you're making "Mother's Apple Dumplings"?

Parents make wishes too

Every year there's one more candle. Jeannie makes a wish — and blows them all out with a single breath.

Jeannie's parents make wishes too. But grown-ups' wishes are called hopes, and they can't be achieved by merely blowing out candles.

Jeannie's parents take her to church every Sunday. There she learns right from wrong and acquires the faith that will sustain her throughout life.

At candle-blowing-time her mother and father smile. It's a smile of confidence, of conviction. They know that their hopes for Jeannie can best be realized in a Christian environment.

Superintendent's Corner

By Fred Dwan

In my last Superintendent's Corner I mentioned that I would comment from time to time on pending legislation that may effect the school district if they are passed. Currently, there are two that cause me immediate concern.

First is Senate Bill 714 (Unemployment Compensation). In its original form Senate Bill 714 would have provided unemployment benefits for vacation periods for all non-certified or non-professional school employees (cooks, bus driver, clerks, etc.). This would require an additional $60,000.00 to be tacked onto the Crawford AuSable Schools' operating budget and would require about 6 of additional millage to fund.

The Senate finally passed Senate Bill 714 with an amendment that would exclude these seasonal employees. However, the battle is not over since it now rests with the House Labor Committee where the amendment could conceivably be removed. Both Senator Davis and Representative Ostling have strongly supported the amended version of Senate Bill 714 because they realize the additional burden the amended version would put on the school districts and property taxpayers. However, they should hear from you regarding your feelings.

A second piece of legislation would significantly increase the cost of school construction/remodeling by requiring contractors to pay union wages on all school construction and renovation projects. Called House Bill 4233 it passed in the House last week and has been referred to the labor committee. It appears that there are enough votes in the labor committee and in the Senate to pass. If so, only the governor's veto could stop it. Senator Davis and Representative Ostling have opposed House Bill 4233. Why not let them know how you feel and this time why not drop the governor a line!

Camp Shawono Activities

Members present: Lauren Shively, Rick Harland, Bruce Haines, Julia Kroll, Jim Heitbrink, Carol Wieber, Dick Wieber, Sandy Millikin. Camp Council members: Mark, Jeff, Kevin, David and Ricky.

Mr. Haines gave the October statistics: 8 new boys, 3 released, 16 truanties. He also said there was a drive on to fill up the camps and there might even develop a waiting list for camps, as there is at Maxey Training School.

A report was given on the Awards Banquet which was held on October 30th. Mr. John Louis from Corrections Employment Service at Camp Lehigh was the speaker and everyone, including the boys, really appreciated his speech. The dinner was well attended with an overflow crowd.

Sandy Millikin reported she has 3 guitarists lined up to come to camp and teach the boys how to play guitar. She will work out a schedule and get back with Mr. Haines as to the right time, preferably on a Saturday afternoon.

The camp council members discussed the possibility of a trip to Bear Museum for a few boys who will be leaving soon. Those that have already attended enjoyed the outing and tour.

Mrs. Kroll had discussed with Mr. Konopnicki a TV documentary called "Teenage Turn-on" presented by ABC and the possibility of getting the film for showing to the boys in camp. This is being looked into.

Mr. Wieber asked if the boys could be available to pick up litter and generally clean up the area at the ski resort before winter sets in.

Lauren Shively suggested we make up a form letter and send to all the various organizations in town letting them know we have a slide presentation regarding the camp available and that we would like to have them schedule us for one of their meetings. Mrs. Kroll said she would form the letter.

The slides were then presented for comment. Everyone enjoyed seeing them and the subject matter was very well done. So they are now ready for presentation to the public.

The next meeting will be held on December 6th at 7 p.m.

Two Attend Tax Clinic

John Compton and Geneva Riddle, professional practicing accountants who operate offices at Manistee Lake, Kalkaska and 146 N. Center, Grayling, traveled to the Northfield Hilton Inn, Troy, on Monday to spend three days (Nov 21-23) studying new laws, regulations and rules to be followed in filing Federal and State tax returns.

The clinic, conducted by the Independent Accountants Association of Michigan, attracted 400 professional practicing accountants from all points in Michigan.

Mr. Compton and Ms. Riddle, along with other clinic registrants, studied problems which surface in preparation of corporate, farm, business and personal tax returns.

The Independent Accountants Association of Michigan estimates that professional practicing accountants in Michigan process better than a million federal, state and local returns each year.

Rural and star route carriers will make every reasonable effort to serve the greatest number of customers during severe weather, the postmaster said. "But service on foot when roads are impassable is not required. Also, when state highway authorities or local police consider road travel hazardous, postal service may be curtailed until the inclement weather abates," he said.

The postmaster urged anyone with a question on winter weather road conditions and mail service to contact the Grayling post office.

Gen-Tel Gift To Museum

The portable "telephone exchange" used by President Richard M. Nixon on his historic China trip in 1972, is now a part of the Smithsonian Institution National Museum of History and Technology in Washington D. C.

The special presidential communications system which is called PRESUS, for President of the United States, was presented to the Smithsonian by Claude Munsell, president of General Telephone Company of Michigan.

The special system is now a part of the museum's Person-to-Person exhibit which celebrates the centennial of the telephone and includes telecommunications equipment and artifacts dating back to the first telephone invented by Alexander Graham Bell.

The Michigan company had acquired the equipment to meet President Ford's communication needs when he traveled through General Telephone exchanges in his home state.

The unit was one of several used to provide White House telephone, radio, satellite and other specialized communications services for the President and his staff while on trips outside the Washington D. C. area.

It was no longer useful to General Telephone since the White House Communications Agency now provides its own equipment for Presidential visits.

In effect a portable mini-telephone exchange, the switchboard and its associated equipment was designed to be easily transported and rapidly set up. The switchboard itself weighs only about 240 pounds and the total package was transported in two shock resistant 48" x 16" x 24" cases.

In addition to use on President Nixon's historic trip to China in February, 1972, the donated switchboard was used on European visits and many presidential trips within the United States.

This special presidential communications system will contribute substantially to the impact of the visitor to our Person-to-Person exhibit," Bernard S. Finn, curator of the Smithsonian's division of electricity and nuclear energy, said of the new display.

Chamber Action...

Grayling Regional
Chamber of Commerce
Serving ALL of
Crawford County!

BY WALT NOWAK
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The 1977 Red Coat Roundup is history now... and from all reports it was a very successful one. Nineteen bucks were registered for the Buck Pole with the heaviest coming in at 164 lbs. shot by Tom Runyan of Fenton, Mich. The buck shot by Bill Burke of Ann Arbor had the largest rack with 11 points. However, the gals from Grayling stole the show when it came to winning prizes. Carolyn Helsel was the first person to bring in a buck to the Pole arriving at 8:00 a.m. and still shaking. She also won a prize for the first woman to bring in a buck and the first of the first ten... in all she collected $95 in gift certificates and cash. Fourteen year old Tanya Weaver was the youngest hunter and also among the first ten. She came in second with a 4 point 112 pounder... and on and on it went until all 19 bucks were on the pole. A threat of warm weather caused the buck owners to scamper for locker plants to keep the deer meat from spoiling. A list of all of the Registrations as well as the lucky shooters are on file at the Chamber of Commerce Office.

On this subject of Red Coat Roundup... it could not have been managed as well as it was without the help and cooperation of the folks who feel that this event is a very important function of the Chamber and the community. I want to thank especially Don Melville, who worked with us from early morning until late at night and who also took charge of hanging the deer on the buck pole. Jim and Joan Shively, owners of the Red Barn helped with the drawing of a Compound Bow that was a gift from the Bear Archery Co., provided the place for awards of the successful hunters. Their work is greatly appreciated. Bill Hamilton, of the AuSable-Manistee Realty donated the use of his 32 foot Cobra Mobile Home for the people who handled the Registrations... all the comforts of home, dry, warm and even room enough for the Senior Citizens to sell tickets for their Car Drawing... thanks. Bill. The lunch on opening day was the gift of Bob Sutherland, owner of McDonald's... the hamburgers were just delicious. Les Hunter let us use his deer scales and LTC Mark McNamara found some chain falls for us to hoist the deer up the pole. Doing some heavy looking on and helping with the many chores were John Naur, Jim Witte, Jim Bourne, Nelson Miles, Wayne Hindmarsh, Bill Bonkowski and his family, and many others who pitched in to help. To all of you... a very sincere THANKS. This kind of community cooperation makes me believe that we can overcome our loss of the Bear Archery next year... We can do it... if we all pull together.

Arts and Crafts Extravaganza Coming To Grayling

One of the biggest Arts and Crafts Shows of its type will be coming to Grayling on Saturday and Sunday, December 3 and 4. Artists and craftsmen from all over the state of Michigan will be on hand, displaying and selling their creations as well as demonstrating and practicing their art. Grayling's second annual Arts and Crafts Show and Sale will be housed in the Grayling High School on Old 27, three miles north of the city.

In addition to the art displays, craft exhibits and practicing artisans, the Grayling show will offer free entertainment periodically throughout both days of the exhibition. Also on the agenda, are several "silent auctions" during which visitors may bid on a variety of arts and craft items. Many of the artists and craftsmen at the Grayling show will be offering their creations for sale, an excellent opportunity for area shoppers looking for that extra special Christmas gift.

Admission to the Grayling Arts and Crafts Show and Sale is just one dollar per person, with students being admitted free. Admission is also free to all persons who presently own the Grayling "Passport to Adventure". Doors at the Grayling High School will open at 1:00 p.m. on both days of the show. Closing time is 9:00 p.m. on Saturday and 5:00 p.m. on Sunday. Any area artists or craftsmen who would like to participate in the Grayling show should contact the Grayling Community School Office at 348-7641, ext. 27 as soon as possible.
